

East Devon cottages near Axminster

These lovely 4 star cottages are the perfect choice for a self-catering holiday in glorious East Devon. They are set in a small hamlet at the top of the unspoilt Umborne Valley near Axminster and are just 4 miles from the beach. For a night out Exeter is 45 minutes away.

There are 6 cottages in total sleeping 6, 6, 4, 4, 2/3 and 2 people, so 25 people can stay there.

The cottages have been converted from farm buildings and now have every modern convenience.

The cottages have a mix of twin/bunk and double bedrooms. The spacious and comfortable lounge / dining rooms have TV and DVD. The fully-fitted kitchens are well-equipped with cooker, fridge and dishwashers. The bathrooms all have power showers.

All cottages have a private patio with wooden garden furniture.

There is convenient parking close by.

River Cottage HQ is licensed, so you can buy drinks on site. However they also allow BYO and they do not charge corkage (so if you think you may drink more than a few glasses of wine, this could be a good option!)

Based on 10-12 people

prices from £170pp

Based on 13-16 people

prices from £165pp

Based on 17-20 people

prices from £160pp

For Saturday Night @ River Cottage instead of Friday Night as shown above, please add £25pp.

In addition to the Friday Night package you also receive half a bottle of organic wine per person.

The wines are carefully chosen to go with your dinner which is a five course tasting menu (as opposed to four courses on the Friday).
